TURKEY CLIMBS DOWN.

Promises to Join League of Nations.

MR. CHILD INTERVENES.

(Reuter's Service.)

Lausanne, December 14. This morning's meeting of the minorities sub-commission had a satisfactory result. Lord Curzon's strong attitude toward the Turks completely altered their standpoint, and they definitely promised to join the League of Nations. Lord Curzon expressed his pleasure, and the chief delegates then left the sub-commission to continue its work.

American Intervention.

Lausanne, December 14. At the conclusion of the minorities commission meeting yesterday evening, there were very active efforts to prevent a rupture, with much coming and going of British, French and Italian delegates till past midnight. Perhaps the most important intervention was by the American, Mr. Child, who had a long conversation with Ismet Pasha, whom he strongly advised to be more conciliatory. Ismet was very reticent and non-committal, but the efficacy of Mr. Child's arguments towards settling the minorities question was proved by the Turkish promise to-day, cabled earlier.

A communication issued after the meeting of the minorities sub-commission to-day states that Lord Curzon noted with satisfaction Ismet's speech, notably the declaration of Turkey's intention to join the League of Nations. M. Barre and Signor Garroni spoke similarly, after which the sub-commission began its labours.

Better Outlook.

London, December 14. Lord Curzon's firmness, supported by France and Italy, has triumphed at Lausanne, Ismet Pasha conceding all the points the Allies demanded except as regards a provision national home for the Armenians. Turkey's decision to join the League of Nations after the conclusion of peace has eased the tension at Lausanne, and is expected to shorten the duration of the conference and facilitate a complete understanding, as when a deadlock is reached on any question, it will probably be referred to the League, similarly the question of racial minorities. Turkey must still apply for admission to the League, which can only be granted by the Assembly. It is probable a special session will be summoned, as the Assembly does not meet before September.

AMERICA'S CREDITS ABROAD.

New York, December 14

At the annual conference of Governors of the United States at White Sulphur Springs, Mr. McKelvie, Governor of Nebraska, advocated the United States increasing the credits allowed to foreign Governments with stable forms of Government, as a means of increasing the demand for American farm products. It should, however, be ascertained prior to the granting of credits whether the nation concerned had reduced its armed forces to a sound peace basis.

JAPAN AND SAGHALIEN.

London, December 14

In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. Trevelyan, who suggested approaching the other Powers represented at the Washington Conference with a view to joining in friendly representations to Japan to withdraw her troops from Russian Saghalien, Mr. Bonar Law said the Government did not consider they were called upon to initiate any action in the matter.

MORE POISONED CHOCOLATES.

London, December 13.

A parcel of chocolates addressed to the Home Secretary was delivered at the Home Office. The police found arsenic inserted, similarly to the case of the chocolates sent to Sir William Horwood a month ago. The parcel was posted at Balham, where Sir Wm. Horwood's was also posted. It is believed both crimes are the work of the same lunatic woman.

CROWN FORCES EVACUATE DUBLIN.

London, December 14.

The evacuation of the remainder of the British troops from Dublin has begun. The Free State troops took over as guards at the Viceregal Lodge, and occupied several barracks, whence the troops marched out with bands playing and colours flying in the midst of cheering crowds.

The complete result of the elections shows the state of the parties as follows: Government thirty-eight, Opposition twenty, Labour seventeen, Independent five. The majority of the latter are pledged not to vote out Mr. Massey on any non-confidence motion.

TWO BIG ROBBERIES.

At Yaumati and Saiwanho.

Two big robberies occurred yesterday, one at Yaumati and the other at Saiwanho.

A man living in Woosung Street, Yaumati, has reported to the police that between three and six o'clock yesterday morning somebody entered his room by climbing up on to the verandah and removing a pane of glass from the window. The intruder stole property to the value of $1,446.

An accountant, residing at No. 1, Taihang Street, Saiwanho, has reported that yesterday morning his safe was opened with a duplicate key and the sum of $996 in money stolen.

ITALIAN OPERA.

Another Kowloon Success.

The Italian Grand Opera Company met with further success at the Star Theatre last night when they again brilliantly rendered the ever popular "Rigoletto."

During one of the intervals it was announced that owing to the indisposition of Miss Ballarin, an alteration would be made in the programme for to-night. "The Barber of Seville" taking the place of "I Pagliacci" in the second part of the performance. The first part of the programme will still be as already advertised, namely "Cavalleria Rusticana." The season has been extended for three more nights, when the following operas will be played:—"Lucia de Lammermoor," "Ballo in Maschera" and "Aida," the dates being the 17th, 18th, and 19th, respectively.

AMMUNITION FROM GERMANY.

Mysterious Steamer Reaches Canton.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Canton, Dec. 14.

An interesting vessel arrived here a few days ago and anchored just outside the port limits, not far from the Naval Dock. Yant opposite the Macao Fort. She is a three-masted sailing ship, flying the German Republic flag, and would probably be an eight-hundred-ton boat. There were ten or twelve German seamen on board, when she arrived.

It is reported that the ship has sailed all the way from Germany, and was met outside Hongkong waters by the Chinese gunboat Popik and towed into Canton by an unusual route.

Foreign observers report that the cargo which is being discharged is smokeless powder, Mauser pistols and ammunition.

Rumour has it that the local Government gunpowder factory is failing to deliver goods up to standard, and that the Germans are getting the job of raising the efficiency of the staff at the local arsenal and of improving the plant.

It is stated that the consignment includes 3,000 Mausers, which were recently ordered from a German firm by the military headquarters. Regarding the distribution of these weapons, the authorities have agreed that they are only to be placed in the hands of officers of a certain rank, who are required to pay a deposit of $100 on each rifle, this sum to be returned on the handing back of the rifle in case of retirement or removal to another military centre.

CHEFALO SEASON.

Three More Performances.

Those who have not seen Chefalo and Palermo should make a point of booking early, for there will be only three more performances here by these talented magicians—to-night at 9.15, the matinee to-morrow at 5 p.m., and on Saturday night. Children will be admitted to the matinee at half-prices to all parts of the house, and there should be plenty of fun about this show, as Chefalo is particularly good at amusing the little ones with his tricks and witty remarks. At to-morrow night's farewell performance the packing case mystery, sawing through a woman, etc., will be special features.

RUSSIA FINDS EXCUSES.

Riga, December 14.

A message from Moscow says that Litvinoff, the chief Russian delegate to the Moscow disarmament conference, in a statement to journalists complained of its breakdown and declared that Russia was not guaranteed against Japanese aggression or British intrigue. He charged the latter with fomenting Anti-Russian agitation in the Far East, not grudging gold for the purpose. The disarmament conference broke down through the attitude of the border delegations at the outset.

AMENDMENT TO SHIP SUBSIDY BILL PROPOSED.

Washington, December 14.

The Republican Senator Brookhart, has proposed an amendment to the Ship Subsidy Bill granting a subsidy to American industrial and agricultural producers. He favoured a ten per centum rebate in freight charges on products for export from points of origin if shipped by Government-aided vessels.

BAKERS' STRIKE.

Government Takes Action.

GUILD DECLARED UNLAWFUL.

There has been a rather dramatic development to-day in connection with the strike of bakers, pastry cooks and bread delivery coolies, the Guild being declared unlawful.

This morning it was found that even more bakery staffs had left work, the only men at work being those whose employers had already signed an agreement to concede the full demands and had agreed to the posting up of notices to that effect in their shops. There are in all about thirteen Chinese bakeries, and fully one half of these were idled to-day. In connection with the bakeries whose staffs had previously left, there was no change to report in the situation, the men being still out and also not accessible.

The Executive Council met this morning to consider the new situation and we learn that as a result of the deliberations it was decided to close down the strikers' Guild, as it was felt that the Guild was being used for purposes incompatible with the peace and good order of the Colony.

We were informed this afternoon, the Captain Superintendent of Police ordered the closing of the Guild offices to-day.

In confirmation of this, a Government Gazette Extraordinary was issued this afternoon and contained an Order in Council by H. E. the Governor to the effect that as the Hip Yuen Tsung Kung She (the Bakers' Guild) is being used, and is likely to be used for purposes incompatible with the peace and good order of the Colony, His Excellency, with the advice of the Executive Council, had declared the said Society to be unlawful.

FAMILY FRICTION.

Ends in Police Court.

As a result of a little family friction, an uncle charged two of his nephews before Mr. J. R. Wood, at the Magistrate's this morning, the alleged offence being that they maliciously smashed forty-eight panes of glass at No. 12, Queen's Road West.

The uncle was represented by Mr. G. R. Haywood and Mr. M. K. Lo conducted the defence. It was explained that there had been a certain amount of friction between the parties. It came to a head when the uncle bought a house which was in the family estate. The defendants were living in the house and had to leave. In the heat of the moment they did things for which they were now sorry. However, it was not admitted that the defendants broke all the panes of glass as was stated. Defendants offered an apology for their uncle and undertook to repair the damage. On those terms the uncle withdrew his case, and the Magistrate agreed to it being dismissed.

CRICKET.

Kowloon C.C. meet the University in a League match at Kowloon to-morrow, at 2.15 p.m., when the home team will be J. P. Robinson, B. D. Evans, C. I. Stapleton, Capt. E. G. Spinks, R. Pestonji, G. A. V. Hall, B. Petherham, H. E. Benson, R. E. Lindsell, L. J. Blackburn and O. C. Dance.

DEATH COMPACTS.

No jury should be obliged to convict of murder in such cases, nor should any judge be called upon to pass sentence of death. The above statement was made by Mr. Justice Lush at Lincoln Assizes recently, in passing sentence of one month in the second division of North Walker, 19, who was charged with the murder of Beattie Simpson, and with attempted suicide at Mablethorpe on August 5. It was stated that the two girls, who were both employed at Nottingham and had overstayed their holiday, agreed to die together, and took poison. The accused recovered, but Simpson died.

LOCAL BOXING.

Big Matches Arranged.

Local boxing enthusiasts will be pleased to learn that at the forthcoming tournaments, on December 23rd, and January 27th, opportunity will be given to witness some of the most interesting contests ever arranged in the Colony. Hongkong can indeed count itself fortunate at the moment in having such a wealth of high-class boxing talent in the Services stationed here, and some of the best fights ever staged should be seen in the forthcoming events.

On Saturday, December 23rd, the main event will be for the middle-weight championship of the Colony, in which C.P.O. Callaghan of H.M.S. Titania will meet A. B. Duncan of B. M. S. Magnolia. Duncan, who has been seen in Hongkong before, is an exceptionally good man, strong if not very scientific, whilst Callaghan is a clever boxer and hefty as well. An extremely good fight should be seen. There will also be six other six-round contests, at various weights.

The great attraction for the tournament fixed for January 27th is the fact that two local championships will be decided. One is the return fight between Stoker P.O. Morgan (F.M.S. Hawkins) and A. B. Dixon (H.M.S. Cicada) for the welter-weight championship of the Colony. Morgan is the present champion, and it will be remembered that these two men fought a very fine fight the last time they met. The fight in London has been staged for the purpose of giving Morgan, who will soon be returning Home, an opportunity of winning the belt outright. Dixon will be out to make his opponent go all the way, and both men are already in training for the contest.

The other championship to be decided is the feather-weight, the contestants being A. B. Chadwick (H.M.S. Marazion) and Telegraphist Oswald Davis (H.M.S. Diomedes). The former has held the title of bantam-weight champion of the Army and Navy, whilst the latter comes on to the China Station as the feather-weight champion of South Africa. These two men are said to be in the very highest class of boxers, equal to the best at Home. The fight should be a great attraction.

Among the latest arrivals out here is A. B. Curtis (H.M.S. Hawkins), a boxer who comes as the light-weight champion of the Atlantic Fleet, a very high honour. He will also be seen at the January tournament, although not in a main event. All interested in boxing here will remember Corporal Scott, who a few years ago was the idol of the Hongkong ring-side and who was the Colony's heavy-weight champion. When he went home a great future was predicted for him in many of the sporting papers. He is due soon to return to the Colony as a Sergeant in the R.E., and he comes as a married man, but still greatly interested in all that appertains to boxing. We may yet see him in the local ring again.

Evans, who also won the Colony's heavy-weight championship before he went Home recently, has been doing very well in the Old Country. He has just succeeded in winning the light-heavy-weight championship of the Army and Navy and is fighting men in the same class as Joe Backett and others. So Hongkong is not so far behind in the quality of its "noble art."

Altogether, the prospects of the present season being a successful one are very bright, and a word of congratulation to our local Boxing Association is highly deserved.

SALT FUNDS.

To Meet Loan Payments.

Peking, Dec. 14.—Arrangements were completed this afternoon for telegraphic transmission from Shanghai, by the Banks concerned, of salt funds to meet the payment of the Hukwang Loan coupons which are due to-morrow.—Reuter.

SUN YAT-SEN.

Reported to be in Canton.

There is a rumour in circulation in Canton, states our correspondent there, that Dr. Sun Yat-sen is again in the city, incognito.

Not much credence is placed in the report, which is believed to have its basis in the fact that Dr. Sun said he would be back in January, and his followers are thought to be anticipating developments somewhat.

Though not at all generally accepted, the rumour has, none the less, gained considerable currency.

CANTON'S WAITRESSES.

Must be Pretty.

A vernacular daily in Canton gives the number of waitresses now being employed in the different tea houses and restaurants as more than 300. They receive from $10 to $25 a month, aside from tips and other miscellaneous receipts belonging wholly to the employees. The qualifications for a first-class waitress, according to this journal, are that she must be pretty, well-built, well-dressed, and attentive to customers. This journal complains that many tea houses are employing waitresses not so much to afford employment to women as to attract men to patronise them.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY CHARGE.

London, Dec. 14.

Everett and Bennett and also Leslie Ernest Haynes were charged to-day at Westminster Police Court with conspiracy with others to cheat persons, who could be induced to invest money in Humphry and Denman Co.

Counsel for the Crown, in outlining the case, said that the Company dealt in a number of subsidiary concerns, supposedly interested in mines in China. These included the Hengchow Company, registered in 1920, with a capital of £50,000.

The Hengchow Company entered into an agreement with a Mr. Grant, a mining engineer, whereby Grant sold to the Company certain rights and interests. Grant said he had a number of fully paid up shares. Their face value, however, was only £50. As far as Counsel knew, this was the only property of the Hengchow Company in China.

The firm of Humphry and Denman was registered in 1918, and, as far as Counsel knew, did nothing. Humphry and Denman were the sole directors and shareholders till the end of 1921, when they appeared to have resigned. They were succeeded by the Enever Mc Cartney Company. The latter entered into an agreement with the Hengchow Company, whereby they took over fifty shares in the Hengchow Company for £50,000, and agreed to take up a further fifty when representatives of the Companies arrived in China to verify the mines. Subsequently advertisements appeared in the papers, inviting people to take up positions of trust in the Far East, to invest two to five thousand sterling and receive salary and commission.

Lieut-General Sir Charles Kavanagh answered the advertisement. He agreed to go to China to verify the Company's title to the mines. Enever gave him £250 as expenses and Sir Charles paid £250 for a number of shares. Sir Charles Kavanagh went to China, and shortly afterwards a prospectus was issued. Sir Charles Kavanagh's name headed the list of directors. Colonel Mc Taggart also invested £500. He went to China, where Sir Charles Kavanagh and himself reported that the effects of the Company in China were valueless.

Others had invested large sums, of which the accused drew some £25,000. The case was adjourned, bail being granted in £1,000 for each of the accused.

EUROPE'S DEBTS.

Washington, Dec. 13.

Addressing the National Association of Credit Men, Mr. Burton, a member of the Allied Debt Funding Association, opined that the remedy for Europe did not lay in the cancellation of her indebtedness to America, but in the adoption of more rational fiscal policies; the abatement of military expenses; the substitution of more sensible and juster relations for the present distrust and repulsion.

Mr. Burton did not advocate releasing Germany from the greatest possible indemnity, but he did not desire to reduce the people to the condition of serfs.

He opined that America could best help by taking a firm stand on the fundamental principles of her foreign policy. For example, the "open door" everywhere should be advocated and insistence on the common use of international channels for the settlement of international controversies by arbitration.

THE BOXER INDEMNITY.

London, Dec. 14.

The Times gives prominence to a despatch from its Peking correspondent, strongly urging the British Government to remit its share of the Boxer Indemnity and devote it to Chinese education.

The correspondent declares it is impossible for Britain to continue and take what the United States, France and Japan are relinquishing. The sacrifice will be trifling compared to what we vainly spend elsewhere, because plainly we can do good with the money to ourselves and others. Indeed, if we do not make the sacrifice, we are likely to suffer heavily in competition for trade and goodwill with the biggest trading community of the world. We are doing nothing directly to secure maintenance of British influence among the Chinese, while Japan, America and France are engaging in a great propaganda campaign with money drawn from China. Plainly we cannot continue to put in our pockets what others are spending on good works.

DR. WOODROW WILSON AND POLITICS.

New York, Dec. 14.

It is announced that Dr. Woodrow Wilson, the former President, will sever his partnership with the Law Firm of Messrs. Wilson and Colby on December 31.

The foregoing announcement, coupled with Dr. Wilson's improvement in health, is regarded as foreshadowing the former President's active re-entrance into politics.

BRITAIN'S FINANCES.

New York, Dec. 14.

In connection with the advance in sterling exchange, reports were today circulated that the British Government is purchasing dollar credits and shipping gold, in order to establish a large reserve fund in the United States against the time when sterling will again be at par and a free gold market re-established in London.

RIOTING IN INDIA.

Allahabad, Dec. 14.

Serious rioting, arising out of the strike at the Bengal and Nagpur Cotton Mills, has occurred at Rajnandgaon. The crowds stoned the police, who were arresting the disturbers. The police fired on the crowd, killing one person and wounding nine. Seventeen of the police were injured.

THE PEAK SCHOOL.

Annual Prize Giving.

The Peak School held its annual prize giving at the Peak Club yesterday afternoon when the prizes were distributed by Mrs. Claud Severn. The earlier part of the proceedings was devoted to an entertainment by the children who gave a most successful performance. Amongst those present were the Hon. Mr. E. Irving (Director of Education) and Mrs. Irving, Mr. E. C. D. Wolfe, (Capt. Superintendent of Police), Lady Rees Davies and the Rev. Mr. Copley Moyle.

The entertainment was very varied, including songs, recitations and dancing. Master Bruce Sutherland recited very creditably and a recitation entitled "The Elf and the Dismal" given by two little girls, Alistair Parker-Rees and Ailsa Morrison, received a great ovation. The Eight-some Reel was one of the prettiest items in the programme. Songs were sung both by the senior and junior pupils with much success.

Report for 1922.
The Head Mistress, Mrs. P. Y. Stark, then read the report for 1922 as follows: The School opened on January 5th with 53 pupils; the number of pupils present this month is 58. The attendance generally has been more regular than in 1921; during the summer term there was a distinct improvement. The health of the school has been good, only one or two cases of eyes and teeth requiring attention.

Two of the Class Rooms are being enlarged, and a new lavatory built. On account of this, the school is closing a week earlier than usual. It is expected that the alterations will be completed before the school re-opens on the 8th January next.

The Staff consists of the Head Mistress and three Assistant Mistresses. Mrs. Mackintosh left in September and was replaced by Miss Cooper. B. A. Madame Mousson visits the school for French, and Mrs. Ross for games and Physical Training, while the Rev. Mr. Copley Moyle kindly gives Bible lessons to the older children.

Fees are now paid by the Term, in advance. There are three STRIKES IN RUSSIA.

Riga, Dec. 14.
A message from Moscow states that, on account of the non-payment of wages, strikes have broken out at Petrograd and Kharkoff and in the Ural and Don regions. There are 73,000 unemployed registered at Petrograd alone and large numbers elsewhere. The number of people out of work is rapidly increasing. Thousands are suffering from hunger in South Ukraine.

A SENSATIONAL FORECAST.

London, Dec. 12.
A sensational forecast, regarding the future, is made by Sir Mackay Edgar. When interviewed on his return from America, he declared that the American demand for oil, metals, and cotton was increasing at such a rate that a worldwide shortage was inevitable. He pointed out that the United States at present was consuming 70 per cent. of its own cotton crop. He cried that the time is approaching when America will import cotton. As regards oil, she has already reached the importing stage.

terms in the year beginning respectively in January, April and September. The usual school subjects have been studied, and he work done has been generally satisfactory. There have not been any children old enough to enter for the University Local Examinations. A new Syllabus has been prepared for the British Schools, and as far as possible these schools will use the same Text Books, so that pupils who find it necessary to be transferred from one school to another will carry on with the same syllabus and the same books. Physical development has been as last year in charge of Mrs. Ross, who has done very good work. As in previous years the School Sports were, by the kindness of the Hon. Mrs. Claud Severn, held at "Tanderraghi" and were much enjoyed by pupils and their parents and friends.

Dividend of 15 Per Cent.

On the 10th. instant, the directors of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha announced a dividend for this half-year at the rate of 15 per cent. per annum.
During the term, the profits obtained from the ocean-going lines showed a decrease as compared with the previous term, but the coast-wise lines were fairly successful and were able to show profits amounting to ¥1,300,000 approximately. Supposing that the sum of ¥2,000,000 from the reserves for the equalization of dividends is used, as for the previous term, the distribution of a 15 per cent. dividend will not be a difficult matter. The directors, having taken into consideration the inactivity of the shipping business, were all desirous to distribute only 13 per cent., but they consented to make the rate 15 per cent. at the desire of important shareholders.—Japan Chronicle.

HONGKONG, 15th Dec., 1922.

NEED OF AN ARBITRATION BOARD.

The bakers' strike, a relatively small thing in itself, raises the question of the need for some better machinery than at present exists for the settlement of labour disputes. Unhappily, the tendency at present is rather towards the multiplication of these periodical stoppages than otherwise. That fact alone warrants every possible avenue being explored in the attempt to prevent strikes from occurring. After serious consideration of the question, we have come to the conclusion that the present method, by which the Secretary for Chinese Affairs calls before him representatives of both parties to a dispute, and then seeks to adjust the differences, has had its day. It is lacking in effectiveness because there is behind it no power to enforce the decisions reached by the S.C.A., however just and reasonable they may be.

Last year, in the early stages of the seamen's strike, our contributor, "Robt. MacWhirter," put forward the suggestion that a Labour Tribunal, or Arbitration Board, be established for the purpose of adjudicating upon labour disputes as they arise. One valuable proposal which he put forward in this connection was that in the case of the Labour Guilds it be made a condition of registration that all representations with regard to wages and working conditions be referred to the Tribunal, in the event of inability to reach an agreement by mutual concessions. Such a Tribunal would be a permanent body, and its promulgations would have the full weight of law, any opposition thereto incurring suitable penalties, as in the case of breaches of the ordinary laws of the Colony. The suggested Tribunal could well be formed of an equal number of representatives of employers and guilds, with a sufficiently elastic personnel to eliminate members directly interested in any particular dispute, the Chairman thereof to be one of the Judges of the Supreme Court. Such a body would, we feel sure, command the respect of all classes, and the workers, as well as the employers, would be able to feel that they could trust their case to its deliberations. With a disinterested Judge as Chairman, there would be a guarantee of fairness for all. The Chinese, as we all know, have a wholesome respect for British justice, witness the avidity with which they take their business disputes into Court. And it would be British justice which they would get from a body such as is suggested.

Other times, other needs. The old method has been tried and has been found wanting. It unduly protracts negotiations and lacks authority and power. We therefore earnestly appeal for the creation of some such body as we have mentioned above. Practical politics demand the consideration of other means than those now available for the prevention of labour stoppages. Nothing would be lost by making the experiment, anyhow. And it is possible that everything might be gained.

Labour In Parliament.

Immediately after the recent General Election, we predicted some lively times in Parliament whenever the big Labour element of the Opposition got going. The "breeze" over the question of unemployment bears out this forecast, and may be taken as an earnest of what is likely to come in the future. Leaving aside the cause of the uproar for the moment, it is interesting to consider the marked tone of hostility to the Government displayed, and, one might almost say, the very threatening words on one Labour member, who indicated the possibility of a resort to mob violence if the working classes did not get what their representatives in the House demanded. No doubt much is said in the heat of debate which is not really intended, but all the same, words of this kind leave a nasty impression on all sober-minded members of the public, and are not likely to advance the cause of Labour or the interests of the unemployed. So much for that. Turning to the reason of all the commotion, we think the Government might have been a little more sympathetic towards those advocating the cause of the out-of-work. The soft answer turneth away wrath. That there are thousands of unemployed in Britain who are suffering great privations is well known, and the Labour members of the House, coming as they do more closely in touch with the masses, are best qualified to plead on their behalf.

The World's Navies.

Hard on the heels of British protests against their Government's policy of trustfulness in naval matters, and the suggestions that other Powers might steal a march on us, comes a suggestion from America along the same lines, expressing a similar fear as regards the United States. It seems that there is a good deal of mutual suspicion still abroad, and that some of the countries that put their signatures to the Washington pact would not be sorry if the disarmament provisions could now be ignored. Mr. Bonar Law has expressed the Government's "grave disappointment" over the continued delay in ratification by two of the signatories. Looking at the matter dispassionately, it seems that, as with many documents of lesser import that come before the Courts of Law, the Washington Treaty has been so worded, no doubt quite unintentionally, as to leave various loopholes by which those parties desiring to could escape their obligations. It is unthinkable that a nation ranking as of any importance in the world should wish to go back on a solemn pledge of this kind, but at the same time it would be of little use to hold an unwilling party to a contract which might be considered a matter of life or death to the country concerned. Perhaps we are inclined to be cynical—we have good reason to be—but we think the best way out of the business for all parties will be an admission that the Washington Conference was a mistake, and a return to the freedom of action existing before that meeting of Powers was called.

PEKING NEWS.

Political Breach Healed.

A Peking telegram states that President Li Yuan-hung has been informed that the dispute between the Chihli and Fengtien parties has been mutually settled, and that the terms of the settlement will be announced shortly. Another Peking message says that Wong Ching-ting has agreed to act as Premier for one week only.

I THINK THE WAR HAS CURED EVERYBODY OF NATIONALISM.—Sir Alfred Mond.

Once again there was a clean bill of health in the Colony yesterday.

The Hongkong Fire Brigade yesterday moved into its temporary new quarters in the building recently raised on the old Victoria Theatre site, part of which has been rented from Mr. M.J.D. Stephens for the purpose. There is accommodation on the premises for over sixty firemen, whilst the new quarters are a distinct improvement on the old in every way.

Our Picture Page to-morrow will contain groups of the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club's bowlers and their opponents, the Cornishians; a photo of the H.M.S. Hawkins team which won the Chefoo Cup for racing whalers, and another of the team from the same ship which won the signalmen's contest for racing whalers; as well as a picture of the s.s. Hoi Sang as she lies wrecked in the West River.

We much regret to record the death of one of the best known and oldest Portuguese residents of the Colony, in the person of Mr. F.F. d'Azevedo, which took place yesterday. The deceased, who was 77 years of age, was born in Macao and for over thirty years was bookkeeper with the old firm of Deacon and Co. He came to Hongkong about a quarter of a century ago and served here with the Mercantile Bank and Messrs. Meyerling and Co. Much sympathy is felt with his five children in the bereavement they have sustained.

A. D. C. PRODUCTION.

The Dancing and the Music.

It is always easy to overstate the differences in taste between the Seventeenth Century and the Twentieth. The dancing and music, which are most important elements in "The Tempest," serve to remind us that the English theatre-goer had the same loves then as now. Shakespeare was always remarkable for the fearlessness with which he would concoct dramatic mixtures odious to the more academically-minded critics. The author who created Romantic Drama by sweeping aside all the classical theories of those who would keep tragedy and comedy separate as distinct kinds, must have revelled in the production of "The Tempest" because he wrote it to include a masque and a ballet. Nowhere else does he extend to the sister arts a more liberal invitation to supplement his dramatic art. This invitation to the dancer, the singer, and the musician, provides a great opportunity for the modern producer. It is not only in conformity with the popular taste of the day, but it provides an opportunity for adding something to Shakespeare at Shakespeare's request and without incurring any risk of being said to misrepresent our great poet. As Shakespeare wrote no music and had no stage directions for the steps of his dances, he obviously expected such things to be composed on the occasion of production. As there is no special reason why Prospero's spirits should dance in an Elizabethan manner rather than in a modern style, the producer is entitled to choose the music, as he chooses the scenery and costume, and as he decides the gesture of the actor, in accordance with his own interpretation of the play. For the present production, dances and musical settings have been arranged by local talent.

CONFLICTING STORIES.

Convicted Man to be Used as Witness.

Two Chinese youths were charged before Mr. J.R. Wood, at the Magistracy this morning, with the theft of a box, containing property to the value of $92. The robbery occurred between seven and ten o'clock on Wednesday morning. Prisoners were arrested yesterday.

First defendant admitted the offence. The second pleaded that he knew nothing about it. The box which was found in his possession was handed him by the first defendant to keep while he went to the country.

It appears that, according to first defendant's statement after his arrest, the first man went to the house where the robbery took place at the invitation of the second defendant. He remained downstairs, while the second went up and forced a door. The second man called him up and gave him the box to carry away. The Magistrate sentenced the first defendant to three months' imprisonment. He asked Insp. Earner, who prosecuted, to put the second man on a new record and charge him before Mr. R.E. Lindsell to-morrow with robbery and receiving stolen property, and to use the first defendant as a witness.

24 CONVICTIONS.

Cannot be Banished.

"Twenty-three previous convictions; all for stealing." Insp. Caygill told Mr. R. E. Lindsell at the Magistracy this morning, when an old-offender was found guilty of being in unlawful possession of skeleton keys. The conviction this morning was his twenty-fourth.

Prisoner's record showed that his life of crime started in 1905. Most of the offences committed were petty ones, except the last, which was burglary and for which he was sentenced to a term of three years.

Insp. Caygill said prisoner was released only as recently as October this year.

The Magistrate to prisoner:—You have just finished three years and here you are again. To Insp. Caygill:—Why has he never been banished?

The Inspector:—He was locally born.

In passing sentence, his Worship said:—The most you can have is three months and that you shall have.

CANTON NEWS.

The Postal Rates Question.

Our Canton correspondent states that as the Postmaster-General has declined to comply with the request that the increased postal rates should be abolished, Mr. Lew Yak-lin, the Commissioner for Foreign Affairs, called on him on the 13th. instant and had a long conference with him on the subject.

Members of the Provincial Assembly have requested the Civil Governor to call a special meeting on the 15th. instant to deal with the question of the improvement of the banknotes and to receive the Budget report. The Civil Governor, however, has replied that the Treasurer has been instructed to do his best to improve the currency, and that as financial reports from various parts of the province have not yet been received, there is no necessity to call a meeting before the end of the present year.

The following items are from the Canton Times:—According to the Southern News Agency, the Canton Government is sending detectives to Hongkong and Macao to prevent further smuggling of arms from these ports to Canton.

According to the report of the Canton Police, there are now 918 places of public worship, including monasteries, nunneries, ancestral temples, and others. It is the desire of the City Government to impose a tax on this holding, and all these institutions have been requested to submit their land deeds and titles for inspection.

According to a local news agency report from the provincial Educational Commission, there are now 19,139 persons in Kwangtung engaged as teachers. Of these, 1,076 have been graduated from Normal Schools; 3,468, from Normal Institute; 3,209, from Middle Schools; 1,546, from schools of high standing; 4,246, from Higher Primary Schools; 1,356, have attended other schools; while 4,233 have not attended modern schools but only the old classical schools.

The fire at Sun Sam Hong early on the morning of December 8 caused damage of some $473,000 to the many insurance companies and agencies in Canton. Forty insurance offices have given the foregoing figure. The Commercial Insurance Company will have paid out $63,000, the largest amount involved, if its claims are settled; while the Shanghai, the Nam Yuen, and others have suffered $1,000 each.

The Headquarters of the Army of Kwangtung has instructed all military stations to prohibit the use of foreign flags by Chinese steam launches. It is said that some Chinese have been avoiding the disadvantages of having their vessels commandeered for military transportation by displaying foreign flags.

EASTERN ITEMS.

There was a pretty wedding at Shanghai on December 9th, when Miss Irene Taylor and Mr. F. Scarborough were married at the Cathedral, the Very Rev. Dean Symons officiating.

The Cathedral at Shanghai was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums and bamboo on December 9th, for the wedding of Miss W. Dobransky and Mr. J.J. Sheridan, the manager of Messrs. Caldwell & McGregor Co., Ltd.

A notice of reward has been issued by the Commissioner of Police at Shanghai for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators of the murder of Bernard Goldenberg, of the Victoria Theatre, in his bedroom adjoining the theatre on November 27th. last. The amount of the reward is $3,000.

According to a visitor from Honolulu who is prominent in tennis, the United States Lawn Tennis Association is considering a plan to divide Davis Cup contestants next Summer into European and Pacific zones for the preliminary matches, with Japan, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Hawaii, Canada and various North and South American countries listed in the Pacific group, says the Shanghai Evening News. The plan has gone so far that representatives from Japan, Australia, New Zealand and the Philippines have expressed approval and willingness to play next year in Hawaii if the plan is adopted. This makes it a possibility that Shanghai some day may see some Davis cup matches, said the visitor.

NEW CLOTHES FOR SCHOOL

These practical little dresses lift the monotony of lessons. They are as sensible as need be and as attractive as one could desire.

Wool, jersey, serge, flannel are the materials used for them and they may be trimmed with coloured wool embroidery, bright silk pipings or yokes or applied designs.

RUSSIAN RECOVERY.

Trans-Siberian Railway Restored.

M. Antonoff, Tokyo manager of the Dalita News Agency, Chita, who was unofficial representative of the Chita government, passed through Shimono-oki on October 21st on his way back to Tokyo from Peking, where he had gone to interview M. Joffe, Soviet Representative at Peking. He made the following statement:

The Russo-Chinese Conference has not yet been opened, contrary to the expectations. The delay has not been caused by M. Joffe's poor health, but really through the non-completion of the preliminary negotiations between the delegates of both countries.

The Trans-Siberian Railway has been completely restored to traffic, and a trip between Moscow and Peking may be completed in 22 days, and one between Moscow and Chita in only 17 days. This will show what sincere effort is being made by the Soviet Government towards the restoration of all Russia.

The Russian refugees staying in great numbers at Wonsan, Chosen, and elsewhere, mostly belong to the ill-informed classes, who have been imposed upon by Merkuloff, and are in no wise politically concerned. The Far Eastern Revolutionary Committee is hoping they will return to their respective homes to resume their peaceful avocations. Even those who belong to the White Guards will not be persecuted.

HYBRID ORCHIDS.

Royal Horticultural Society's Show.

The fortnightly meeting of the Royal Horticultural Society at its hall in Vincent-square on October 31st, was primarily an autumn show of orchids, and it brought together a very fine display of these flowers, says the Times. The more important of the two cups offered for competition among amateurs was won by Baron Schroder, of Englefield Green. His group consisted of well-grown and profusely flowering specimens of various Cypripediums and Cattleyas, while the group arranged by Sir Jeremiah Colman was noticeable for the variety of the plants shown and for the rarity of some of the species included in it.

Messrs. McBean's group contained many fine Odontoglossums and hybrids between them and other genera, while the basis of Messrs. Charlesworth's was formed by some fifty white seedlings of Odontoglossum crispum. There was a certain variation among them in the amount of yellow spotting and blotching. The firm also showed a few hybrids between Odontoglossum and Miltonia, which they are raising with a view to providing a plant which can be grown in warm climates where the Odontoglossum will not flourish.

OLD INDIAN GODS.

"At Home" Days In Celestial Circles.

The agriculturists of Kulu, in the Punjab Himalaya, are preponderantly Kanets, who according to the most recent authority, were in all probability among the earliest Aryan invaders of the Himalaya. Their religion is peculiarly local and entirely different from the Hinduism of the Punjab plains and even that of the Kangra hills. The gods, says Mr. H. Lee Shuttleworth, in the Geographical Journal, own a large share of the cultivated land, and their worshippers are also their tenants. The village god is a popular local institution, managed by the Kanet village community in its own interest. It seems to be often a family deity in origin, though it is sometimes a nature spirit exercising sway over a larger but still limited tract of country.

This local worship, despite seventeenth-century and other Brahministic importations of Rajput chiefs, is essentially democratic and non-Brahministic. The village gods are extremely human, easily offended, and most capricious. They have their divine or semi-divine relations and visit on fixed "At Home" days. Gods and worshippers keep in close communion through the agency of prophets, a remarkable and widespread class found throughout Kulu and the neighbouring hill states.

These prophets, like those of the Old Testament, are selected by the deity to act as his human mouthpieces. In Kulu the deity may pick out a man of any caste, Kanet or menial Kohli, as his Gur or prophet. Indian Buddhism, prevalent in the seventh century and earlier, has disappeared and the old gods again hold sway.

MOTHERHOOD RECORD.

Five Sets of Triplets, Two of Twins.

La Porte, Ind., Oct. 23.—Five sets of triplets and two sets of twins born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott in ten years established a record for the Middle West—perhaps for the whole country. The Scott parents and thirteen living children boarded a west-bound train in search for enough land to provide sustenance and employment for the whole family. "We can't carry a Sunday school class, madam," remarked the conductor to the mother as she offered one fare.

"But they are my children," Mrs. Scott replied. The family Bible was produced from a load of luggage and it disclosed the remarkable lack of race suicide. There were Ashbel, Archer and Austin, each four and a half years old; Arthur, and Arnold, each three and a half; Allen, Almon and Albion, each two and a half years; Alfred, Albert and Adolph, each eighteen months; Abel and Abner, each six months.

EASTERN ITEMS.

Interesting News in Brief.

A Japanese paper published in Shanghai reports that General Semenov is again in Shanghai. He is said to have arrived there on Tuesday last week, and is now residing in the French Concession.

St. Joseph's Church, Shanghai, was prettily decorated on December 7th, for the wedding of Miss Amy Ratcliff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ratcliff, to Mr. Ernest William Westwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Westwood. The Rev. Father Gree, Cumbo officiated.

Miss Beatrice Grimshaw, the well-known authoress, who has written so many volumes of life in the South Sea Islands, arrived in Singapore recently from London en route to New Guinea after an absence at home of some eight months.

The wedding of Mr. Mathew McNair Tonkin, manager of Messrs. Lazard Godchaux and Co. and Miss A. G. Ankoodinoff, daughter of a retired Russian officer, took place at the Russian Church, at Shanghai, on December 7th. Mr. McNair acted as "best man" and Miss Lily Ankoodinoff as bridesmaid.

Major-General Sir William Rycroft, who assumes the Governorship of British North Borneo, retired from the Army last year and has had no experience of the Far East. He has, however, a long and distinguished military record, which includes several administrative appointments held at home and abroad. Born in 1861, Sir William was the second son of Sir Nelson Rycroft, fourth baronet of "Kempshott Park, Basingstoke."

The ceremony of unfurling the Afghan flag over the Afghan Consulate at Berlin on August 30 is recounted with much enthusiasm by the Afghan newspapers. The speech of Sardar Adibkhan, the Afghan Consul to Germany, is fully reported. Lord D'Abernon was present, as also were M. Tchicherin, other representatives of the European States, and the Afghan students now studying in Berlin.

According to advice received at Shanghai last week the Pacific Mail steamer President Taft, which was due to arrive in Shanghai on December 13, was obliged to put back to Honolulu after departing from that port. How much delay has been occasioned or why the liner had to put back are details not yet received. It is thought probable that some or all of the passengers from the President Taft may have been transferred to the President Lincoln and will arrive in Shanghai on December 20.

The death took place recently at the Presidency General Hospital, Calcutta, of Mr. R. Braunfeld, the oldest member of the Calcutta Bar, aged 82. He was attacked with cerebral haemorrhage and removed to hospital in an unconscious state. He was enrolled as an Advocate of the Calcutta High Court in 1877 and owned extensive properties in the southern suburbs of Calcutta, where he settled permanently. He was proprietor of an arrowroot factory and plantation, and took a keen interest in the poor and in his workmen. He was President of the Indian Seamen's Institute.

VALUE OF IMPERIAL TRADE.

Its Relation to Emigration.

An article on the possibilities of Imperial trade, which appears in the September circular issued by the London County Westminster and Parr's Bank, emphasizes the importance of Empire migration.

In 1913, it is pointed out, 21,000,000 Britons overseas took British manufactured goods to the extent of £33,000,000, or an average of some £4 per head. 526,000,000 of Europeans and Americans took £179,000,000, or about 6s. 10d. per head. That is only an amplification of the moral pointed by the figures supplied to the late Mr. Lewis Haslam in Parliament and printed in United Empire in May last. It was the moral of Sir Philip Lloyd Greame's address printed in April. The Empire Development Union has been making calculation along the same lines, and it finds that the average value per head in 1921 of the purchases of Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa from Great Britain was £5 15s. 6d., whereas the value of all European countries per head was £1 0s. 6d. Counting France, 272 millions of Europeans took just over £100,000,000, whilst fewer than 20 millions in the Dominions took nearly £110,000,000.

What therefore every effort should be made to maintain markets in Europe and America, there is an overwhelming argument in support of developing the Imperial side of British trade, and to that end, as Mr. Amery once pointed out, nothing will contribute more surely than a policy of Empire migration.

ADVENTURES OF A MAJOR.

Piracy Charge Recalled.

Major Albert Gybbon Spilsbury, whose death at home was announced early in November, had an adventurous career and will be specially remembered in connection with the once famous case of the Tourmaline, in which he was the leading figure.

In 1897, having obtained a treaty from the tribes of the Sus, which region he claimed was independent of Morocco, he led an expedition thither on the steam yacht Tourmaline. The Moorish man-of-war Hassanie endeavored to seize the yacht, but was driven off by gunfire. When he returned to London, Major Gybbon Spilsbury was arrested on a charge of piracy and of fighting the soldiers of the Sultan. The trial was held in Gibraltar, and ended in his acquittal.

Shortly afterwards he went to East Africa, where he laid out the town of Port Amelia, Pemba Bay, and explored and surveyed the country from the coast to Lake Nyasa, on the south-eastern shore of which he established Port Arroyo. "But for an accident," writes Mr. R. B. Cunningham Graham, in his book, Mogreb-el-Aksha, "Spilsbury might have been Emperor of Agadir, the Lord Protector of the Sus or Rajah of Tamagrot, but fate had disposed otherwise."

The fifth son of the late Francis Gybbon Spilsbury, of Walsall, Staffs., he joined the Northampton Militia in 1869, and later served in the 3rd and 4th Battalion Yorkshire Regiment and in the Thames Division of the Royal Engineers. At the outbreak of the war in 1914 Major Gybbon Spilsbury rejoined the Royal Engineers.

TO-DAY'S MISCELLANY.

Beethoven would surely have smiled had he lived to hear that the Russian Soviet Government has banned, among other "dangerous" music, his so-called "Emperor" concerto, as liable, owing to its title, to undermine the democratic tendencies of the Russian army bandmen. For the composer never gave the concerto the name it now bears: as it left his hands it was simply a piano-forte concerto in E flat. But on one occasion he nearly dedicated one of his works to an Emperor. That was the "Eroica" symphony, which was dedicated to Bonaparte. But before it was published news reached Beethoven that his hero had assumed the title of Emperor, whereupon he tore the titlepage of the score containing the dedication to pieces.

Epicures, as well as all fishermen, will wish good luck to the movement to stock Cumberland lakes with Loch Leven trout. With the possible exception of salmon, there is not a fish that swims which affords better sport, and without exception there is none with better flavour when catching, landing, cooking and eating are all accomplished on the same day. It has redder flesh than others of its kind, and although it does attain to the size of the gillaroo of the Irish lochs, the catch of a five or six pounder is no unusual experience. There are bigger trout, too, in both English and Scotch waters, but as a rule they are of sulky disposition and coarser flavour. The gigantic bull trout, for instance, has been known to turn the scale at 40 pounds, but it is difficult to find a lure to tempt it, though, once hooked it is said to give good sport.

Mr. Justice Darling, the humorist of the Bench, who last month completed his 35th year's service as one of His Majesty's Judges, holds the distinction of being the only judge of the High Court who presided in a Court of Justice during the reign of Queen Victoria. One of the two remaining judges who were appointed by the late Lord Chancellor Halsbury, Sir Charles is senior to his nearest rival, Mr. Justice Bray, who was appointed in 1904, by seven years, but Sir Reginald Bray is seven years older than Sir Charles Darling. Once the political opponent of Sir Charles, afterwards Lord Chief Justice Russell, in Hackney, Sir Charles Darling established a reputation for witty speeches in the House of Commons. Although 72 years old Sir Charles is one of the most wide-awake judges on the Bench, and his conduct of the Armstrong trial last April was admittedly one of the best cases in his career.
